The Fish and I. I think I was like 3 or 4. The fish was later named "Albert"
Hate to tell you this, but the fish died a few months later=)

Main

Our family portrait, August or so, 1998. This is the first portrait we have (that I know of) that has my Dad in it, he's usually taking them!

Main

Chilean Flag flying during my Homecoming

Main

My name tag converted into a Keychain

Main

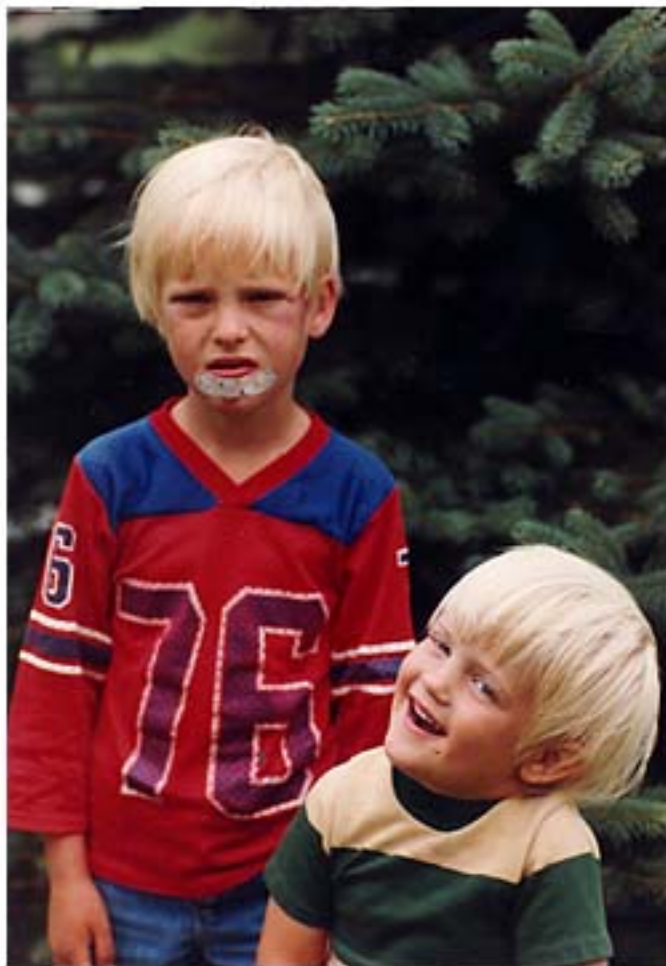

At my graduation. My Dad's a professional photographer. He took this picture, can you tell? =) (just kidding Dad!)

Main

Outside the Utah Capital for Prom my Senior Year
(Lisa, my date, is married now)

Main

I had an accident on my bike, my front teeth went through my lip. I couldn't swim for a month.

Main

Me on my muddy trike, I rode it through our neighbor's mud hole.

Main

My new bike! I was 5 years old. Check out that banana seat!
I could ride a wheely on that thing!

Main

Scott and I in front of a canyon on our famous
1984 trip to Arches National Park

Main

I was Shakespeare in our school Shakespearian festival. The part I hated was that I had to hold hands with "Queen Elizabeth" at one point.

Main

Here I am as Shakespeare talking to the court Jester. My Mom made that costume REALLY quick using an old dress!

Main

My dad took us to the park to take our picture one Sunday evening.

Main

Christmas eve we opened the presents from each other.

Main

Christmas with the family

Main

Playing with the ducks. We had to do our house work before we could play with the ducks. Pretty good incentive, eh?

Main

I was a Mountain man and my little bro. was a Pirate...
Arrrrgh Matey!

Main

All together (except my Dad, he's taking the picture) We were in Oregon

Main

Well, according to the candles, I'm 14
Looks like I'm blowing REAL hard!

Main

Our family portrait just before my brother Scott went on his mission.

Main

My mom snapped this picture while on a hike near "Mary's lake." I used to have longer hair.

Main

Probably my favorite ceramic piece that I've ever made,
It's about 3 1/2 feet wide, big enough to cook a kid! =)
